

Harsh World, This World

Electronic Field Trip

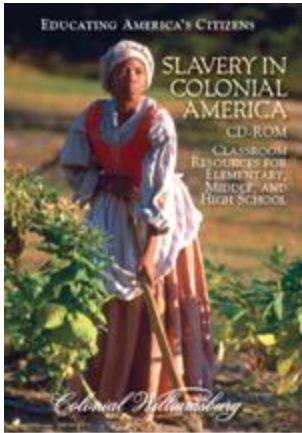

What was slavery really like for enslaved people and their masters? Traditional proverbs guide students through personal stories, based on primary sources, showing kindness, betrayal, trust, cruelty, and the many emotions that govern complex human relationships.

Purchase Now

#EFTBC1340 $50.00: Full online access for the remainder of school year. Includes online teacher guide, lesson plans and student web activities. Grades 4-8.

Harsh World, This World Trailer -
Colonial Williamsburg's Electronic
Field Trip Series

Slavery in Colonial America

History Content Lesson Unit

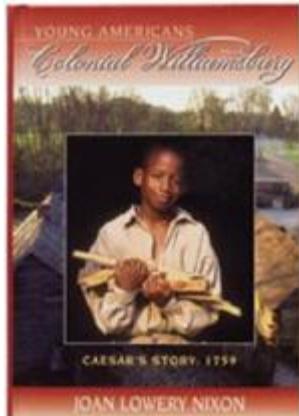

Explore slavery's pervasive influence across the American colonies. This unit includes lessons on the transatlantic slave trade, slave labor and regional economies, slavery and the law, African American culture and life under slavery, and the beginnings of the antislavery movement.

Grades 4-12, 136 pages

CD-ROM with PDF files and six MP3 music files.

Item #938233 $19.95

Purchase Now

Caesar's Story:1759

The Young Americans Book Series

Why do things have to change? Caesar lives with his family, but he is a slave, and when the master selects him to be a personal servant in the big house, Caesar has to obey.

Grades 4-6, 165 pages.

Item #238 $9.95 each

Purchase Now

Questions?

Call 800.761.8331

Email cwfeducation@cwf.org

STAY CONNECTED

